

International support center

The International Centre is the TIIAME NRU's hub for all things global. Whether you're a student looking to explore, a faculty member looking for international partners or a researcher hoping to work with us, we're here to support you.

TIIAME NRU International Support Center provides information to assist international students their daily lives and promote better communication with residents. In addition to other assistance such as

- Guidance throughout your chosen program of study
- Specialized advisory services for international students
- Referrals to relevant contacts inside and outside the University
- Advice and support relating to enrolment and Confirmation of Enrolment matters
- Social programs and promotion of activities for international students
