

in German, information about the public speaking competition.

The German Embassy in Tashkent sent a note to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. In it, from April to May this year, in German, information about the public speaking competition. The participation of students of Uzbek universities in the competition of the Ministry does not object.

We think that this competition will be held in the universities of the republic. The goal is to improve the system of learning foreign languages and responds to tasks and helps students to study foreign languages in depth, as well as teacher training.

The competition is based on accommodation and meals for participants in Tashkent. The related costs will be covered by the Embassy.

The German side plans to hold the competition in two stages:

Stage 1 will be held on April 16 this year directly at the university

Stage 2 on May 3 this year at the German Embassy in Tashkent in the building or online. From each university at this stage the winner of the first round will be invited

Participants are offered the following topics:

“Germany will establish diplomatic relations with Uzbekistan in 2022, marking its 30th anniversary. This is for the next 30 years. How do you see the relationship?

What is the art of diplomacy? Peaceful diplomacy. How does this affect life?

“What are the problems of the younger generation today? Where do you see the solution?

How important is social media to you? Their pros and cons. What are the aspects? The future of social networks and their society. How do you see the impact on your life?
