Yokohama National University of Japan

According to the Embassy of the Republic of Uzbekistan in Tokyo, Yokohama National University of Japan has announced a scholarship competition for doctoral studies for the 2022-2023 academic year. This scholarship is a Global Doctoral Program for Academic Career Support (GDACS) and was awarded to a doctoral student from the Republic of Uzbekistan in October 2022 or April 2023. provided for candidates. The program is designed for university teachers, exempts students from entrance and tuition fees, and provides a monthly stipend of 100,000 yen (approximately $ 1,000) for successful students. To participate in the competition, candidates must independently access the detailed information on the website of the Yokohama National University of Japan https://www.ynu.ac.jp/english/admissions/scholarship/gdacs/, fill out the application and follow all the procedures. should pass in a line manner. It is also the candidate's responsibility to determine the supervisor.